Discussed a request by Commissioner Billings for a full-time Aide, and requested that the City Manager bring back some analysis and options for consideration at a future meeting

Commissioner Billings determined that the staff was investigating whether the technology had improved to the point that City trucks with diesel engines were as efficient as gasoline combustion engines so that there could be a policy those trucks should be turned off and on for less fuel consumption and in the interest of air pollution, rather than left running as had traditionally been done with the older diesel engines.

Received a report from Mayor Maddox on his trip out of town the previous week when he had met with members of Congress and the White House relative to federal electric deregulation legislation and protections for municipalities, and had had attended a meeting of the National League of Cities (NLC) and accepted one of five national technology awards for the City of Tallahassee's Y2K solution and the Tallahassee Training Institute

Mayor Maddox discussed his concern with the protocol of the City Commission taking a vote at the Comprehensive Plan Amendments transmittal public hearing while he was out of town which had reversed a prior vote on a particular amendment taken at an earlier workshop.
